Dear Ms. Gilliams,

Thank you for contacting Governor Rick Scott. The Governor appreciates receiving your recommendations for amending Florida Statutes regarding Domestic Relations. He asked me to respond on his behalf.

The Florida legislature is responsible for passing (including amending) state laws. You may wish to contact your local legislative delegation with your recommendations for amending Florida's Domestic Relations laws. Their contact information can be found at www.leg.state.fl.us.

Please know that the Governor's staff follows all bills as they move through the legislative process. If any future legislation on this subject is filed or presented to the Governor for his consideration, he will keep in mind the important issues and concerns that you shared.

To ensure they are aware of your suggestion about issuing an executive order, I forwarded a copy of your correspondence to the Governor's General Counsel Office for their review.

Thank you again for taking the time to write to Governor Scott. Your thoughts are important to him.

Sincerely,
